CONSTITUTION

OF THE

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Article I—Name

The name of the organization shall be the Junior League of Winston-Salem, affiliated with the Association of Junior Leagues of America, Inc.

Article II—Object

"To foster interest among its members in the social, economic, educational, civic and cultural conditions of the community, and to make efficient its volunteer service."

Article III—Membership

Section 1. There shall be seven classes of members: Provisional, Active, Inactive, Professional, Non-Resident, Associate and Sustaining.

A. Provisional Members are those not eligible to active membership until they have complied with the requirements of the League through its twelve months training course and its volunteer system of service. At the end of this period, if found by the Executive Board satisfactorily to have met the above requirements, they are declared active members. Provisional members shall have no voting power.

B. Active Members are those who, having finished their provisional course, are required to attend all monthly meetings, except when excused, and to take part in the regular activities of the League.

C. Inactive Members are those who have been excused from League duties by the Executive Board for a definite length of time, however still retaining their place on the list of active members. They are required to pay double dues for the period of inactivity.

D. Professional Members are those who are not able to attend monthly meetings regularly, or to take part in the full activities of the League because of a profession. They may vote, and are required to pay the same dues as active members, and serve when possible in any capacity.

1. Semi-professional members are those who not being able to take part in the full activities of the League, are required only part time work.

2. Semi-professional provisional members are those provisional members who, not being able to take part in all the activities of the League are required only part time work. They must, however, comply with all the rules of the provisional training course.

E. Non-Resident Members are those members who leave Winston-Salem for an indefinite length of time. They may be granted non-resident membership, provided they are in good standing at the time of their written application to the Executive Board. A non-resident member shall pay all back dues before being transferred to another or reinstated in this League. Their place is relinquished on the active roll.

F. Associate Members are those active members who having completed eight years of active service and not desiring to take part in the full activities of the League are required only part time work.

1. Associate members are required to do half as much work as active members.

2. Associate members must pay regular dues.

3. Associate members may hold office and have full voting power at all times.

G Sustaining Members are those active members who, having reached the age of forty, automatically become sustaining members.

1. Sustaining members may attend meetings, but do not have voting power.

2. Sustaining members are required to pay regular dues.

Section 2. Any woman residing in Winston-Salem for a period of one year, who has completed her schooling, and has not passed the age of forty, provided she is personally acceptable, shall be eligible for membership.

Section 3. Method of Election to Membership.

A. There shall be one meeting a year designated for the election of new members. This shall be the regular November meeting, unless changed by a two-thirds majority vote of those present.

Article IV—Officers and Executive Board

Section 1. The elected officers of the League shall be a President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer and Registrar.

Section 2. The Executive Board shall consist of:

The Eight elected officers.
The Chairman of the Hospital Board.
The Editor of the Magazine.
The Editor of the News Sheet.

The Chairmen of the Arts and Interest, Beauty Parlor and Shop Committees.
Other Committee Chairmen at the discretion of the Board.

Article V—Transfers

Only members in good standing shall be transferred from one League to another. The Secretary of the League from which a member transfers shall send to the Secretary of the League to which she is being transferred, a National transfer card which is a recommendation from the Executive Board. The Board of the League to which she comes shall pass on the name.

Transfers shall be accepted by the Winston-Salem League as Guest Members for one year. During this year the Guest Member may pay dues to the Winston-Salem League or to the League from which she has transferred. At the end of a year the Guest Member shall be passed upon by the Board of the Winston-Salem League.

This does not apply to former members of the Winston-Salem League.

Article VI—Amendments

This constitution may be amended, added to, or repealed at any regular or annual meeting by a two-thirds vote of those present, provided the proposed plan shall have been presented in writing and signed by five active members at least one meeting before it is acted upon.

BY-LAWS

Article I—Meetings

Section 1. A meeting of the Junior League shall be held on the first Tuesday of each month, exclusive of July, August, and September. No notice shall be given except through the newspaper.

Section 2. The Executive Board shall meet prior to the regular business meeting of the League.

Section 3. Absences.

A. Members are excused from attendance at meetings only in case of sickness or absence from the city.

B. In the case of unexcused absences from meetings, the delinquent members shall be fined fifty cents.

C. Each member who is absent shall report to the Treasurer at any time before the conclusion of the next meeting she attends, the reason for her absence.

D. In case of unexcused absences from three consecutive meetings, delinquent members shall be summoned before the Executive Board If no satisfactory explanation is given, such names shall be automatically dropped from the roll.

Article II—Election

Section 1. Members.

A. A candidate for membership must be proposed by the filling in of a regular questionaire blank. This must be sent to the chairman of the Membership Committee, who is the second Vice-President. Only members with voting power may submit names. This questionaire must be signed by two other voting members. Only one name may be proposed and one other name seconded by a member at each election. The blanks must be submitted to the membership chairman at least ten days previous to the date for the regular Junior League meeting in November. A list of all girls proposed for Junior League membership must be sent to each member of the Board at least one week previous to the date for the meeting of the Board in November. These lists must be kept as strictly confidential by the Board.

B. The number of members to be taken in each year shall not exceed twelve.

C. The proposed names shall be passed on by the Executive Board which is the Membership Committee. Two-thirds of the Board members present shall be necessary to accept a name.

D. After having been approved by the Membership Committee the name of the proposed candidate shall be submitted to the League for consideration at the regular November meeting. A candidate must receive two-thirds of the votes of the members present to be declared elected.

E. A Constitution of the League shall be sent with each letter of invitation to join the organization.

Section 2. Officers.

A. The election of officers shall take place at the regular meeting in March.

B. There shall be a nominating committee composed of five members—two appointed by the President, from the Executive Board, and three elected from the League at large, this committee to be elected at the January meeting. The ticket of officers shall be read at the February meeting and then posted in the Shop. Additional nominations may be sent in writing to the nominating committee at any time after their election in January, or before the February meeting of the League, if signed by five members of the League. These shall be posted by the nominating committee with the others. No one except a member of the nominating committee shall post or take off a name. If a person wishes her name withdrawn she must ask the committee to have her name taken off the list, giving her reasons to them. By her name shall be written the word "withdrawn," but only by a member of the nominating committee. The League shall vote on each name separately by secret ballot and a majority of the members present elects an officer. If there are no nominations sent in to the nominating committee, the League shall vote on the ticket as a whole.

C. The nominating committee shall serve for one year, and shall nominate all delegates to conferences. Additional nominations may be made from the floor if desired.

Section 3. Absent Members Voting

Absent members may vote by sending the names of their candidates, in writing, to the President who shall cast the vote. The sender's name must be signed to the ticket. This applies to all elections.

Article III—Duties of Officers

A. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Executive Board and shall be ex-officio member of all standing committees. She may call special meetings of the Board and of the League at her discretion. The President-elect, shall appoint the chairmen of all standing committees and shall read to the League at the April meeting these names and the members of the committees.

B. The First Vice-President shall assume the duties of the President in her absence and shall supervise the training of the Provisional members.

C. The Second Vice-President shall assume the duties of the President or Vice-President in their absence. The retiring President becomes Second Vice-President at the election of officers. She automatically becomes chairman of the Membership Committee.

D. The Recording Secretary shall keep the minutes of all regular meetings and special meetings of the League.

E. The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the League, and shall preserve all important papers and documents.

F. The Treasurer shall have charge of the funds of the League, shall keep complete records of the receipts and expenditures, shall take all necessary steps for the collection of dues and other money, and shall make an annual report.

G. The Assistant Treasurer shall assume the duties of the Treasurer in her absence and assist her when necessary.

H. The Editor of the Magazine shall attend to all correspondence relative to the Magazine. She is responsible for sending in all subscriptions to the Junior League Magazine.

I. The Registrar shall keep an accurate monthly record of the volunteer work of the League.

J The Chairman of Departments shall make monthly and annual reports of their work.

Article IV—Term of Office of Chairmen

No chairman shall hold office more than two years in succession and at least two members of each committee shall be appointed each year who have not served the previous year

Article V—Dues

Section 1. Dues for Provisional, Active, Professional, Non-Resident, Associate and Sustaining members shall be $8.00 a year payable semi-annually. For Inactive members dues shall be $16.00 a year.

A. This includes the subscription price of the magazine.

B. Any member who at the end of the year has not paid her dues is given three months in which to pay. If not paid by then she is automatically dropped from the League.

Section 2. Provisional members shall pay an initiation fee of $10.00 when they are elected to full membership in the League.

Article VI—Provisional Training Course

A. Punctual attendance upon all lectures planned for provisional members is compulsory.

1. A written notice of the dates and hour for all lectures must accompany each letter of invitation to provisional members. No further notice need be given unless there be a change of date or hour for any lecture.
2. All explanations for absence from any lecture must be sent in writing to the Executive Board. The Board shall at all times have the authority to decide upon each case, based upon its individual merits.
3. Excused absence from lectures.

   (a) The actual time of the lecture not attended must be made up.

   (b) Notes of lectures not attended must be secured for study.
4. Unexcused absence.

   (a) The entire lecture course and examination must be taken over the following year.

B. An examination must be passed by each provisional member at the conclusion of the lecture course.

C. Provisional members must be willing to render any service requested by any department of the League, provided such a request has been passed upon by the Executive Board.

Article VII

The Junior League shall pay the full expense for one delegate or half expenses for two delegates to the National and Regional Conferences.

Article VIII

The date, hour or place of the regular monthly meeting shall not be changed without 48 hours notice in the newspaper, or a personal telephone call, to every member.

Article IX—Rules of Order

Roberts Rules of Order shall be the authority followed in all parliamentary proceedings of the League.

Article X—Amendments

These By-Laws may be amended, added to or repealed at any regular meeting by a majority vote of the members present.
